

Prolong your pre-holiday fake tan...

DON'T MISS OUT ON THE untapped mileage a twice-daily application of body oil can give your pre-holiday spray tan. 'Applied for a few nights in a row before you fake tan, you'll find it takes to the skin much more naturally – especially on knees and elbows,' says L'Oréal Paris tanning pro James Harknett. 'Continue the regime with your tan in place and it'll improve its longevity as well.'
